OIL EXCITEMENT SPREADS TO SOUTHWEST PART OF COUNTY

D. G. Givens and Associates Are Drilling Two Tests Near Roff; White Lime Formation Is Found at a Depth of 500 Feet With Indications of Finding "Pay Grease" Soon.

That the oil boom is raging in Pontotoc county is backed by the fact the two rigs have been erected near Roff and the drilling is well under way. Both tests are down 500 feet and the lime formation is found, this being a good indication that the pay sand will be found in the next few days.

This morning the American Oil & Refining company of Ada are unloading a boiler and rig which will be erected 3 miles north of this city. This company has a test going down now and have reached a depth of 110 feet.

C. W. Hardage and associates are putting down a test in section 24-4-9, in Pontotoc county, this being 8 miles east of Ada and 7 1/2 miles southeast of Allen. One-half interest in this property was purchased from the Fossil-Rock Petroleum company by the Chicago company with a contract to drill a well 2,500 feet. This well is known as No. 1 and is drilled 555 feet and is making 1,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily.

Hardage stated this morning that the possibility of making this Oklahoma's greatest shallow well field stands unquestioned and that local oil men are doing everything possible to induce more capital and experienced men to come here and help develop this field. "This is not a wild-cat proposition," said Mr. Hardage. "We have the oil and are daily shipping it out to the refineries; the only thing we need is more rigs and drillers."

In the Steedman field the well in section 16 has set the casing at 112 feet. Well in section 20 has set 10-inch casing at 45 feet. Drillers are moving the rig in section 17 to well No. 3. This section now has two producing wells, they being brought in two weeks ago, and are making from 25 to 45 barrels per day.

Usher & Usher of Oklahoma City are unloading rigs at Steedman today and will start drilling activities at once in section 17. Ashton and associates of Pennsylvania are putting drillers and material in the field today. They are on part of the Bob Ford leases near Steedman.

Here is a conservative estimate that is presented to the most skeptical relative to the actual worth of oil wells found in this county. The average shallow well will produce 25 barrels of oil per day, this oil being worth $3.50 per barrel. In one year's time a well will produce $11,315.00 worth of oil. Any number of wells can be drilled on one section.

The Harris Hotel of this city reminds one of the hotels in Burk Burnett and Wichita Falls during the boom in these places. Oil men from the east are entering this field and are making Ada their headquarters. It is expected by the latter part of this week to see several hundred people in the field and that property of all kinds will go skywards—this is already taking place in Ada. Those who are in on the ground floor will reap the harvest for the boom is here and is coming stronger every day.

RECOGNITION OF COSTA RICA ANNOUNCED TODAY

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, August 2.—Recognition of the Government of Costa Rica by the United States was announced today at the state department.

Instructions were sent by cable to the American consul at San Jose, Costa Rica to inform the government there of the recognition. The selection of a minister to Costa Rica has not yet been made.

"False In One Thing, False In All"

Oklahoma City, August 3, 1920.

Jeff Fowler, president of the World War Veterans, was stoned and rotten-egged at Pryor Saturday night during a speech for Senator Gore and the same afternoon at Ada I was struck from behind following my speech and thrown in jail. My assailant was unmolested. EIGHT HUNDRED FARMERS STORMED THE JAIL AND FREED ME. Papers are suppressing the news. Mayes and Pontotoc Counties will go for Gore as a result of the Ferris tactics of not letting the people know.

(Signed) ALDRICH BLAKE,
Skirvin Hotel, Oklahoma City.

The above telegram was phoned to the Evening News this morning from Tishomingo by President R. M. McCool, president of the Murray State School of Agriculture. It was being distributed on the streets of Tishomingo in circular form. C. W. Saunders, a returned soldier, phoned that the same telegram was being circulated at Lehigh. According to Royal J. Allen the telegram was also being shown at Duncan. There is no doubt that this telegram has been sent by the Gore headquarters to every town in the state except those in Pontotoc County.

Of the six material allegations in the above telegram five are known to be false by the hundreds of citizens who were present when the trouble occurred.

One—Blake was never thrown in jail.
Two—Blake's assailant WAS molested.
Three—The jail was not stormed by eight hundred farmers or anyone else.

Four—The papers are not suppressing the news.
Five—Gore will not carry Pontotoc County.

The first allegation is only fifty per cent true. Blake was struck, but not from behind.

Blake had just closed his argument for Gore and Luther Harrison had just begun to speak for Ferris when the trouble occurred. When Harrison was called to speak he told Blake that it was Blake's meeting and that unless Blake was perfectly willing, he would not speak at all. Blake greeted Harrison very courteously, told him he was willing for Harrison to speak, and proceeded to introduce him in a complimentary way. Harrison had just thanked Blake for his courtesy and was urging the crowd to avoid all excitement and ill feeling, when the trouble occurred.

The reports of the trouble conflict on some points but are pretty well agreed on this: that Blake was leaving the crowd to catch his train for Purcell, Lowry Harrell, well known in Ada as a returned soldier, presented a copy of the congressional record to Blake and called his attention to a mis-statement of the record recently appearing in the Lawton News. Blake, who was tired and worn out from speaking in the hot sun and probably irritable for that reason knocked the record aside, exclaiming "damn the record and the Lawton News;" whereupon Grover Gaar, another returned soldier who was with Harrell, struck Blake.

Almost instantly a hundred men gathered about the two belligerents. In order to prevent a free-for-all fight Harmon Ebey seized Gaar, while Mayor Kitchens seized Blake and both participants were taken to the police station. Here a few questions were asked Blake and when it was learned he had violated no law he was released and immediately caught the Santa Fe train for Purcell. Gaar was fined for striking Blake and released.

There is absolutely no excuse for the telegram sent out by Blake this morning and circulated by the Gore adherents throughout the state. It is so false that the people here in Ada consider it ridiculous. It is false in every essential particular. Blake knew it was a lie when he wrote it. He wrote it because it was a lie and the truth would not serve his purpose. He could have sent the telegram over the state yesterday morning, but that would have given a chance to expose its falsity.

You have heard all the lies of last hour lies. The Blake telegram is a splendid example of the last hour lies.

NEXT JUNIOR SENATOR FROM OKLAHOMA

Hon. Scott Ferris Will Be Overwhelmingly Elected At Tomorrow's Primary

The following statement and prediction was issued last night by Campbell, secretary of the Ferris for Senator Club:

"True Americanism and Democracy will triumph tomorrow. Scott Ferris will be nominated by an overwhelming majority. He will carry all of the eight congressional districts. His majority will be not less than forty thousand."

"We await the verdict of the people, confident that the same spirit which fired Oklahoma during the dark hours of war and still burns in the hearts of her men and women. Believing we sense the temper of Oklahoma Democracy, and after a careful analysis of reports from every county, we can see nothing else than a clean sweeping victory for Ferris."

"The Ferris strength in the state is not sectional. It cannot be divided by geographical lines. Ferris strength is not based on local conditions. It is based on the broad principles of Americanism. Love of country cannot be divided into precincts, towns and counties."

"Ferris majority in purely agricultural communities will be equal to that in cities of corresponding voting population. The agricultural sections of the state have never yielded to the cities in their patriotism and love of country, and their majorities on Tuesday will be equally convincing."

"The registration of women has been large. An overwhelming majority of the mothers of the state are staunch supporters of Ferris. Ferris majority among the women of the state would alone be sufficient to assure his nomination."

"We have conducted the campaign from these headquarters solely upon the records of the two candidates. We have appealed to the minds and intellect of the Democratic men and women of the state rather than to class prejudice. We are confident that the results of tomorrow's election will justify the course we have pursued."

IRISH SUPPORT MR. HARDING READJUSTMENT OF RY. RATES ON

Sympathizers Will Support
Harding and Coolidge
In Campaign.

MARION, August 2.—A prediction that Irish sympathizers will support Harding and Coolidge, was made by representative Mm. E. Mason of Illinois, one of the leaders of the fight in Congress for Irish recognition, in a statement made public, from Harding's headquarters today, after he had conferred with the nominee.

"Friends of Ireland, of course, have to be for Harding," the statement said, "because they know what article X, of the League of Nations covenant means. It would hitch Ireland to England forever and bind us to help keep them there, and Governor Cox has pledged himself to support the Wilson program."

Senator Mason predicted that the Republicans would carry Illinois by two hundred thousand votes, and that the republican national ticket would be elected by a majority. "The most overwhelming since Grant was elected."

Senator Harding began work today on his second front porch speech, which he will deliver Wednesday to a group of Republicans from Wayne County, Ohio.

Wholesale Raise Is To Be Made to Meet the Big Wage Increase.

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, August 2.—Readjustment of the whole rate structure of the national transportation system was started today with a view to putting into effect, by September 1st, the freight, passenger, Pullman, excess baggage and milk rate increases, authorized last Saturday by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

While tariff experts are working on the general rate schedule, the carriers will make presentation to the various commissions for advances in interstate rates compared to those of existing rates. Requests for advances in passenger Pullman, milk and excess baggage tariff are expected to be the same for all states, as the increase in the charges, authorized by the Federal Commission were general.

In announcing that the application for intrastate advances would be made to the state commission, Alfred S. Thom, general counsel of the association of railroad executives said these increases would not enlarge the gross income to be received by the roads under the decision of the Federal commission because in presenting their case the carriers had based their estimate on corresponding state rate advances.

The death rate among children less than a year old is the same as that among persons 61 years old.

WOMEN TO CAST THEIR FIRST VOTE

This and Senatorial Contest
Features of Tomorrow's
State Election.

By the Associated Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 2.—Participation of women in an Oklahoma state election for the first time and close races for the principal nominations for U. S. Senator are the features of the Oklahoma primary tomorrow. There is also a special election in the Eighth congressional district to fill out the unexpired term of the late representative, Dick T. Morgan.

Senator Thomas P. Gore is a candidate for re-election and he is opposed in the democratic primaries by Congressman Scott Ferris of the Sixth district. Ferris has made Senator Gore's war record the issue of his campaign. Both the senator and the congressman have covered almost every corner of the state.

Fourteen republicans are making the race for the republican senatorial nomination, and in addition there are two independents and one socialist.

Women vote tomorrow under an amendment to the state constitution passed in November, 1918. Several women candidates have announced themselves. They include one for the state senate, one for corporation commissioner, and several for the lower house of the legislature. Party leaders expect a large woman's vote to be polled.

There are three complete tickets in the field—democratic, republican and socialist. In addition there is a list of independent candidates. It is in this latter column that the ten electors of the recently organized farmer-labor party are found. Filing papers were taken out for them by the Oklahoma member of the committee of 48 and the ten filed the day before the time limit expired. The prohibition party is barred from the field by a state law which provides that a party ticket must poll at least 50 per cent of the vote cast for the leading candidates at the preceding general election or 25 per cent in three other states before being admitted to the ballot.

The roll of candidates seeking the nomination for U. S. senator is as follows: Democrats—Thomas P. Gore and Scott Ferris; republicans—Sumner T. Bisbee, Earnest E. Blake, Albert A. Shall, Cash M. Cade, E. M. Clark, Ed Perry, Ben Thompson, P. D. Lindsey, James B. Cullison, N. D. Welty, Henry Powers, Charles I. McGuire, J. W. Harrell, Wm. T. Clark; socialist—A. A. Bagwell; independent—M. R. Turner and Thomas Pratt.

The list of offices for which candidates are to be nominated is as follows: Ten presidential electors, one U. S. senator, a congressman in each of the eight districts, twenty-two state senators, or half that body; 92 state representatives, or a full house; three supreme court judges and a vacancy, one member of the criminal court of appeals, one corporation commissioner and the various county offices.

The special election in the eighth congressional district has attracted a field of twelve candidates, seven republicans, four democrats and one socialist. Many of these candidates also have filed for the regular term in the district. There are democratic contests for the nomination in five of the congressional districts, the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth, and the republican contests in the first, second, third, fourth and fifth districts. One socialist has filed in each district.

ARMISTICE MAY BE SIGNED BY RUSSIANS

By the Associated Press

WARSAW, August 1st 4 p. m.—Doubt was expressed in diplomatic circles here today as to whether an agreement for an armistice would come out of negotiations between the Polish and Soviet Russia at Baranovitchi. It is said the soviet authorities would listen to terms, if not too severe. The Polish delegates carried with them into the Russian lines a portable wireless outfit, which they intend to use for communication with Warsaw, but officers this afternoon said, however, that it might be days before the negotiators were heard from.

WEATHER

Tonight and Tuesday partly cloudy; cooler in extreme east portion tonight.

TO THE MOTHERS OF OKLAHOMA

Tomorrow you will cast the first ballot you have ever been permitted to cast in a statewide political election in Oklahoma.

For fifty years your friends and supporters have urged the adoption of equal suffrage on the theory that your enfranchisement would purify politics and drive moral lepers from public life.

The men of Oklahoma believed that argument and adopted suffrage. They expressed confidence in the womanhood of Oklahoma when they granted the ballot to women in the election of 1918.

Tomorrow that argument is to be tested. Tomorrow the womanhood of Oklahoma is to be tested. Tomorrow you will vindicate the faith men reposed in you when they enfranchised you or you will violate that faith and cast your ballot for a man whose offenses cannot be mentioned in polite society.

The issue is plain in the senatorial contest. You will vote for a man whose private life is without a stain or you will vote for a man who three times has appeared as defendant in charges involving the violation of a woman's honor.

If you should live for a thousand years and vote in ten thousand elections, you would never have such an opportunity to align yourselves with the forces of good or the forces of evil.

You know too well how a world of men has treated you through all these ages. You know that certain men have regarded you as their legitimate prey.

The story is as old as the hills that look down on Eden. The man has laughed at the woman's calamity. And the woman has worn the scarlet letter imposed by a world of men.

A thousand indignant voices have declared that Senator Gore should be protected because he was blind. So was Myrtle Holder of Corsicana, who was only seventeen.

Is a man who has passed his fiftieth birthday and has spent a dozen years in the American senate to be shielded from all criticism because of his physical calamity while a child of seventeen is followed through life with a whip of scorpions?

Men have laughed through the ages at their own moral delinquencies. In certain circles a shady past is a political asset.

Not so with the mothers of men. When Almighty God fashioned the first mother he placed all that was pure and all that was Christ-like in her heart. Down through all these centuries, blackened by sin, it has been the gentle hands of women that have saved the world from hell. There is no place in the hearts of our mothers for the intellectual wolf that robs a seventeen year old blind girl of her most priceless possession and casts her away as an evil thing.

We have an abiding faith in the mothers of Oklahoma. Better that all candidates should be defeated and all parties annihilated than that our faith in womanhood should die.

Remember this: the mothers of Oklahoma will never cast their first ballot for a man who has the evil record of Thomas P. Gore.

ADRIANOPLE IS BEING DESERTED BY TURK PEOPLE

ATHENS, Aug. 2.—Adrianople is quiet at present, according to advices received here, the Turks and other elements either being stunned by the presence of Greek troops in the city, or resigned to the fate that has come to them.

Large numbers are said to be preparing to leave Adrianople. The Greeks are restoring civil administration, in some cases retaining the Turkish officials and telegraph service between Adrianople and the outside is being resumed.

WITHOUT THE CONSENT OF THE PEOPLE

(Dallas News)

In refusing to call the Legislature of his state in special session for the purpose of ratifying the Federal suffrage amendment, Governor Clement of Vermont says the proposed amendment clearly invades the constitution of his state. Just what he means by this assertion we have been unable to determine, for the Vermont constitution is silent upon the subject of amendments to the constitution of the United States.

We are able to determine, however, what we think Governor Clement means. He goes on to say that the present Legislature was elected before the question of ratifying the Federal amendment had arisen, and that the people of Vermont have had no opportunity to express themselves upon the subject. We also find that the constitution of Vermont provides that that instrument can not be amended save by a vote of the qualified electors of that state, and also that said constitution bars women from voting. If the legislature of Vermont should vote to ratify the federal suffrage amendment, by this act it would amend not only the federal constitution, but, also, in effect, amend the constitution of Vermont and the constitutions of all other states where women now are barred from voting. We conclude that what Governor Clement is protesting against is the amendment of the constitution of Vermont in this indirect way, contrary to the provisions of said constitution.

He goes on to assert that as it stands and is interpreted by the supreme court today, the federal constitution threatens the foundations of free popular government.

Believing that women ought to be permitted to vote, we nevertheless feel that Governor Clement does not exaggerate the danger which is presented in the freedom now allowed to the representatives of the people to amend constitutions, both state and federal, without consulting the people.

Originally the federal government, in its relations with the states, knew only the states themselves; it did not deal with the people of those states. Accordingly, the constitution provides that it may be amended by a vote of the state legislatures. It was assumed that each of the states would make its own provisions for the choice of its people to be heard. But now, the supreme court holds that it is not necessary that it should regard such provisions.

We agree with the Governor of Vermont that the foundation of free popular government is threatened. We have a condition akin to that of Mexico and other countries where the constitution may be amended without popular consent.

Until recent years the constitution of the state of Texas never has been amended except by the consent of the people of this state. Within the last two years it has been amended twice without consulting the people, once in the face of an adverse vote of the people upon the subject. Some day other provisions of the Texas constitution will be similarly amended.

Scott Ferris went to congress at an earlier age than any other man ever elected to congress from Oklahoma. He was the first member of the Oklahoma delegation to obtain a committee chairmanship. He won the highest political honor ever conferred on an Oklahoman when he was appointed head of the western headquarters of the Democratic party in 1916. The states in his jurisdiction went Democratic and re-elected Woodrow Wilson. Scott Ferris never had a personal or political enemy until he announced his candidacy for the United States senate. No charge affecting his private life or character has ever been made at any time or place by anybody. So clean and honorable has been his private and political life that opponents have found only one argument against him: "He is a handsome man."

In denouncing Walter M. Harrison of the Oklahoman as a slacker just because he was never called to military service, Senator Gore attacks every registered man in Oklahoma who was not called to the colors. Harrison was of military age. He registered just as tens of thousands of others did. He was given deferred classification just as tens of thousands of other Oklahomans. Gore charges that Harrison was a slacker just because he didn't volunteer, which is equivalent to saying that all the boys in Oklahoma who didn't volunteer are slackers.

BEST PAID NEWSPAPER CONTRIBUTOR IN WORLD

Bud Fisher is the John D. Rockefeller of newspaperdom, the highest-paid man who ever drew a picture, and perhaps the most envied and most misrepresented fellow in his line.

He has made Mutt and Jeff the two best known comic characters in the world. Only the income tax man knows exactly how much Fisher makes each year out of those two creatures of his brain, but it is close to a quarter of a million dollars.

He sells Mutt and Jeff to hundreds of newspapers all over the world—in every corner of America, to a dozen papers in England, to papers in Australia, France, Japan and China. If Rembrandt and Michael Angelo could have sold all their paintings for the prices they now command they would not have received what Fisher has been paid for drawing Mutt and Jeff.

Many persons will tell you that Mutt and Jeff aren't funny. Almost anyone will claim that they are not artistic. Many even abuse Fisher and I think more untrue and exaggerated tales are told of him than of any other man I know.

It may surprise persons who have tried to analyze the appeal of Mutt and Jeff to know that Bud Fisher has one of the keenest brains in the country, that he understands Mutt and Jeff, that he knows just why people follow their weird careers; and that he works along a perfectly sound and sane line which would be approved by the highest-brow psychologists. This is true because Fisher is a shrewd student and analyst of human nature.

He is an odd little fellow; cocky, assertive, self-confident and aggressive, yet, strangely enough, he is one of the few men who possess a just mind, one that is capable of seeing both sides of any question if he wants to do so.

He was born in a small town in Illinois, raised in California, educated in Chicago, first at Hyde Park School, and later, for a time, in the University of Chicago. He was fond of athletics and was a member of the high school team from Hyde Park which, along about 1902, astounded the athletic world by sweeping its way through the Penn Relay games. On that team were Fisher, Walter Eckersall, Sammy Ramsom, the famous colored athlete, Tom and Harry Hammond, afterward famous with Michigan and West Point, and Phil Comstock, who captained Princeton.

He went to San Francisco, knocked around for a time, and on November 10, 1907, introduced Mutt to newspaper readers as a plier clerk touting the race results. A month later, he introduced Mutt to his now famous pal Jeff.

Mutt and Jeff made an instant hit. A hundred other cartoonists have made similar hits, but Fisher was conspicuous among them because he decided that the profit belonged to him, instead of to whomever chanced to employ him. Further, he decided not to put himself into a position in which some employer might, for any reason, exterminate Mutt and Jeff by refusing to print them.

With these ideas he entered New

FERRIS RALLY WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

The Scott Ferris rally on Broadway Saturday night was probably the largest political meeting that has been held in this county during the present campaign. There was plenty of enthusiasm for the Lawton congressman to make the meeting interesting, and the several speakers were warm in their praise of their candidate and just as warm in their criticism of Senator Gore. Judging from the remarks of the speakers it would seem that they do not like the blind senator any too well.

The High School Cadet Band was present in force and rendered a number of popular selections that were greeted with hearty applause. Judge Busby presided and made the opening speech. He had with him the congressional record that has figured so prominently in the campaign, and read from the record frequently to prove his points.

Other speakers who followed Judge Busby were Ulman Heatley of Francis, Charles L. Orr of Holdenville, W. W. Gaines of Stonewall, and N. T. Tucker and Robert Wimble of Ada. Perhaps the most impressive speech of the evening was that of Mr. Heatley. He is a disabled soldier and has been in the hospital a considerable part of the time since the war closed. He made an energetic attack on the war record of Senator Gore and urged all his hearers to remember the soldiers who died in battle by voting for the soldiers' friend, Scott Ferris.

In speaking of the war period, Captain Orr, who was overseas for several months, said that on numerous occasions he was twitted by his comrades for being from a state represented in the senate by Gore. On such occasions he had always told his comrades that Oklahoma is really patriotic and at the first opportunity would prove it by retiring Senator Gore.

N. T. Tucker spoke as the representative of organized labor. He declared that since all the evidence was in it was up to the voters to pass judgment and that the verdict was "farewell, Thomas P. Gore." He made a strong appeal for a return of government to the old fashioned democratic principles. His speech was well received by the audience.

STATE STORAGE LAWS DO NOT AFFECT WHEAT

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 2.—State laws governing public storage houses do not affect persons or corporations having storage room for wheat of less than 25,000 bushel capacity, E. L. Fulton, assistant to the attorney general, announced today.

Mr. Fulton's opinion was given out after H. P. and S. A. Miller of Fairview applied for a ruling stating that they proposed to store wheat for farmers in that region on a rental basis, paying for the wheat at market prices when cars for shipment become available.

Paint It Yourself

"The paint on a car is composed of three principal parts. First, the priming or foundation, second, the color and third, the covering or protective coating. The foundation merely gives a smooth base for the color. The color is composed of a number of thin coats rubbed smooth and gives the body of the job. The protective coat is a thin hard coat of transparent varnish which protects the color from the weather. If the protective coat is kept intact, the color coats will maintain their original brilliancy."

—Motor for July.

Is the Undated Car Here

"Has it ever occurred to you how much of the pleasure of motoring would be lost if all cars looked the same, if their lines were cast from a common mould, set and standardized, and all of the dressed from the same paint-pot? Such a condition of things could, perhaps, be brought about, but how, I wonder, how, would a procession of such vehicles appear on a popular road. Sydney Osberry in July Motor.

Shake Hands with the Law
"Highway law is not hard to understand. It is universally recognized as the clearest expressed and the simplest system of law on our statute books. It speaks, not in terms of dead phrasing, but in simple, direct, forcible language. Any motorist who cares to do so, can ascertain his legal rights and liabilities in his state in fifteen minutes' reading, and he won't need an attorney to interpret for him, either."—Charles C. Sherlock in July Motor.

The canvas back duck thrives on wild cherry or cool grass.

THE CULLING OUT

In developing high grade qualities of fruits, vegetables and field products, the power continually culls out the undesirable characteristics of the plants. The better qualities are then left to be nourished and developed to perfection. So it is with raising our individual lives to their highest standard of excellence. We must continually weed out those things of bad quality and nourish and strengthen those of good quality.

Can we expect the good qualities we are endowed with to grow luxuriant when choked by the undesirable tares of our nature? The inherent qualities of our being grow in so far as they are strengthened by individual effort. Then it behooves all to select the nature that are desirable and strengthen them and, at the same time, dwarf those undesirable inclinations.

Those who have made the effort to perfect their living can glance backward and see many undesirable traits that have been subdued and many worthy characteristics that have been brought to the front. So, let our progress be onward, culling out as we go, those unworthy tendencies that would thwart perfection.

OKMULGEE MAN GETS SEVEN MARRIAGE LICENSES

OKMULGEE, Okla., With five licenses already on the books in his name since July 1, J. B. Coughlin, 30, of Coalton, came here Friday to take out his sixth marriage license, and before he left made it his seventh, and he is still single.

Each of the licenses was for one of three sisters who look so much alike that Coughlin says he cannot tell them apart. They are Fannie, Mabel and Ethel Hurst of Henryetta. Their ages are 27, 23, and 21, but Coughlin isn't certain which are belongs to which girl.

"They won't see me unless I've got the marriage license," he explained. And when I get a license for Fannie they tell me it should be for Ethel; and when I get one for Ethel, the one I want to marry says her name is Fannie."

Fannie turned him down after he got the first license, because he smoked two cigars on the way to Okmulgee to get the paper.

At one time he got a license for Ethel in this county and another for Fannie in Okmulgee county. That brought Fannie around, but she insisted on being married in Okmulgee county.

Today Coughlin got a license for the third sister, Mabel, but half an hour later he had decided Ethel must be the one he wanted to marry because he was sure she was the sister who was 21. That was license No. 7, according to Court Clerk William Campbell.

Real Stuff.

To our mind Mrs. Penfield of The Custard Cup is this season's champion among literary heroines Florence Bingham Livingston, who set her down on paper, is a person whom Mrs. Penfield herself would approve. She was born on a farm in Burlington, Vermont, lived there during her childhood, and has spent most of her life in California. Let her tell the story of her own life.

"One side of my family are generations of openhanded, fun-loving individuals; on the other, a long line of thrifty serious-minded Puritan pioneers. I accepted inheritance from both; as a result, I get a double view-point on any subject, which I fancy is the secret of the unflinching freshness and diversity which humdrum facts of human existence always have for me.

"Like a chameleon, I enjoy fitting into different backgrounds. I have a college degree tucked away but I can put on a gingham uniform, dig my pocket in a can, and sling slang till no one suspects that I have thought beyond a peach pit and what will be doing at the band concert on Saturday night. I have been in intimate association with fabulous wealth, and I have had the higher privilege of picking blackberries at four cents a drawer, side by side with men and women who didn't know the taste of butter.

"I hate receptions, artificial amenities, and the unnecessary machinery of social living; I love the out of doors, books, animals, and particularly human beings.

"When I was eight, I decided that the time was ripe for me to write a book. With a long pencil and a huge piece of wrapping paper, I sprawled on the floor and waited for the first sentence—which never came. My surprise amounted to shock, which kept me from further attempts till I left college. Then, without premeditation, I reeled off two novel-length manuscripts, each of which made one trip to a publisher. When they returned, I buried them in my desk, and gave up the descriptive business of writing. I have managed the house, done the family sewing, worked in an office, painted china, investigated industrial conditions by firsthand experience, reported for newspapers, and given illustrated lectures on the San Francisco Exposition."

Reading the Custard Cup, however, you will agree that her literary career has advanced since she was eight years old.

Sherbets.

Haskell, Okla.—Will you kindly distinguish between an "ice" and a "sherbet" and give some recipes for seasonable sherbets?

Water ice or "ice" is fruit juice sweetened, diluted with water, and frozen.

Sherbet—Water ice to which is added a small amount of dissolved gelatin or beaten whites of eggs.

Frappe—Water ice frozen to consistency of mush; in freezing equal parts of salt and ice being used to make it granular.

Grape Sherbet.

3 grapefruits
4 oranges
1 cup water

2½ cups pure grape juice
1 tablespoon crystallized ginger.

Halve the grapefruits and remove the centers. To the juice of the grape fruit add the juice of the oranges, the water, the grape juice, sugar and chopped ginger.

Mix thoroughly and freeze until firm. Serve in grapefruit shells and garnish with Maraschino cherries.

Grape Juice Sherbet.

2 lemons
1 pound sugar (2 cups.)
1 orange

Whites of 2 eggs.
1 quart of grape juice.

Bol the grape juice and add the sugar. When it is dissolved add the lemon and orange juice and freeze.

When partly frozen, open freezer and fold in the whites of two eggs which have been whipped to a stiff froth. Close freezer and continue until very stiff. You will like this, I am sure.

JUDGE BROWN TALKS TO VOTERS OF ADA

On the eve of the election I desire to take this method of thanking the voters of the city for the courtesy shown me throughout my campaign for re-election to the office of Justice of the Peace of

H. J. Brown.

Ada precinct, and to assure you that I have no doubt as to the result of the election tomorrow so far as I am concerned.

I can say but little to the male voters of the city, for the very good reason that each and every one of them know me and my record and are aware of the fact that I have made good.

To the women voters who are to vote generally for the first time tomorrow, I simply wish to say that I stand now, as I have always stood, for the impartial enforcement of the law and for everything that a clean citizenship could demand. If, perchance, any of you are not acquainted with me, all I ask you to do is to ask your friends who know me. I believe in simple and exact justice to all, regardless of sex, creed or color, and if re-elected tomorrow I agree to render you the same kind of service in the future as I have in the past.

Trusting that each and every democratic voter in the city will realize the importance of going to the polls tomorrow and exercising their franchise, and assuring you that I thank each and every one for the assistance they have rendered me in the present campaign, I have the honor to be,
Yours sincerely,
H. J. BROWN.

DIAMOND KING DIES SUDDENLY

Pretty Hotel Clerk Says
Were In Friendly
Scuffle.

By the Associated Press

CHICAGO, July 31.—Miss Ruth Woods, a pretty hotel cashier, who was alone with Samuel Key A. Loftis, head of the diamond firm of Loftis Bros., when he suddenly died in his luxurious apartment last night, today told the police that after they had engaged in a friendly struggle.

Although the police believe the diamond millionaire died as a result of concussion of the brain, probably caused by a fall, they are not satisfied with the conflicting stories told by Roy Shane, son of a late millionaire merchant, who is being held pending the inquest.

Miss Woods, who described Shane as her fiancé, said she was called by Loftis to his apartment at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon; that they danced and drank together, and finally Loftis attempted to attack her. "We were having a playful struggle," Miss Woods declared, "and my attention was momentarily distracted from him. The next instant I was startled by the sound of his body falling to the floor. I was at a loss to know what to do and rushed to the telephone to summon Mr. Shane."

Superfluous.

Upon the recent death in a Western town of a politician, who at one time served his country in a very high legislative place, a number of newspapermen were collaborating on an obituary notice.

"Oh, just put down that he was always faithful to his trust."

"And," queried a third, "shall we mention the name of the trust?"

FOUR OHIOANS SEEK A HOME AT WHITEHOUSE

By the Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 2.—Ohio, the "mother of presidents," now has four nominees on four tickets in the presidential and vice presidential derby. Three are editors and publishers and the fourth is the head of a book publishing house. Two candidates for vice president are Clevelanders.

In addition to James M. Cox, Dayton, democratic nominee for president, editor and publisher of the Dayton News, and Springfield News, and Warren G. Harding, Marion, republican nominee for president, editor and publisher of the Marion Star, the new additions to Ohio's list are:

Max S. Hayes, Cleveland, farmer-labor party's nominee for vice president. He is head of a book publishing company and is regarded here as the tallest candidate who has ever aspired to that office. He stands six feet eight inches in his stocking feet. He was born in Texas 39 years ago.

A Good Reason.

"I kept house for about three weeks, then I went to a hotel."

"Why didn't you go on keeping house?"

BOSTON DRYEST CITY IN THE U.S.

New York Is Wettest, With Seven Hundred Saloons
Operating.

WASHINGTON.—Boston is the driest city in the U. S., federal prohibition Commissioner Kramer said today.

New York is the wettest, according to Kramer.

"Probably there are 700 places in New York where the prohibition law is being violated," said Kramer.

"This shows a big success for the prohibition law, however. New York used to have 11,000 saloons. We're doing our best in New York but it is a long job."

Kramer declared he was much pleased with prohibition enforcement results so far.

Expected Violations.

"I do not deny," he said, "that the law is being violated in many localities, especially in larger cities like New York and Chicago. This was perhaps to have been expected.

"There has been a big change in the attitude toward prohibition since the supreme court approved its constitutionality about a month ago. Our agents report that more enthusiasm is displayed by local police and prosecutors in co-operating with federal officials in enforcement of the law."

"Partial prohibition or the proposal to permit the use of light wines and beer will never be a success in the U. S. or anywhere else, in my opinion. Advantage will be taken of the concession to sell strong liquor on the sly."

Prohibition so far has achieved as much success as could have been hoped, Kramer declared. Police in many localities report less arrests he said. He also emphasized that hospitals have been able to close formerly populous inebriate wards.

A Narrow Escape.

Hicks was a tall, angular lad from the backwoods who had never before seen a train. As he stood with his city cousin in the long station shed and watched the puffing engine and the long line of cars roar in, his face turned ashen.

"What's the matter, Bill?" asked the cousin.

"My gosh," gasped Hicks. "If that darned thing had of come in sideways it would of wiped us all out."

Deputy Fails To Get Prisoner From Kansas Officers

Deputy Sheriff Claude Chandler, who went to Wichita, Kansas, Friday after I. H. Phillips, returned to Ada last night without his man. Phillips was wanted in Pontotoc County on a felony charge and was arrested in Wichita several days ago by the Kansas officers who wired the sheriff's office in Ada that they had Phillips and that he would be surrendered without protest. Mr. Chandler left at once for Wichita to get Phillips, but when he arrived in the Kansas town Phillips had been released and the Wichita officers refused to make any effort to find him again. So Chandler returned to Ada without any prisoner but with a poor opinion of Kansas and Kansas officers.

Peace.

One fine spring evening, Mr. Murphy sat on his front door-step enjoying the balmy air. His neighbor, O'Donnell, happened along. "And where is Mrs. Murphy?" he asked, "that she is not with you on your own front door step?"

"She has gone," said Mr. Murphy, "for a change of air."

"Has she, indeed?" answered the interested O'Donnell. "And I suppose it is to Coney Island or Newport that she is gone?"

"Ye suppose wrong," answered Mr. Murphy, "and isn't she seated this moment at the back door-step."

WET OR DRY IS MISSOURI ISSUE

"Pukes" Still Puke Over the Liquor Question; Slavery
Not Mentioned.

By the Associated Press
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Aug. 2.—Missouri voters tomorrow will choose nominees for federal and state offices. The prohibition question has been made a direct issue in both the republican and democratic contests for nomination for United States senator and the league of nations controversy has been injected into the primary in the democratic senatorial race.

Interest centers in the gubernatorial and senatorial races. Three republicans and six democrats are seeking the senatorial toga and two republicans and five democrats are after the respective nominations for governor.

The pre-convention presidential campaign fund disclosures are expected to play some part in the decisions of the voters, particularly in the republican ranks. Dissatisfied republicans have been demanding the resignation of Jacob L. Babler, their national committeeman, and of W. L. Cole, chairman of their state committee. "Clubs" have been organized by party members in various parts of the state to defeat the Babler-Cole candidates.

Prohibition and the league are outstanding features in the democratic senatorial contest. Former Federal Judge Henry S. Priest is seeking the nomination on an anti-league and "wet" platform, while Charles M. Hay, a St. Louis lawyer, has made the race on a "dry" and pro-league platform.

Breckenridge Long, former third assistant secretary of state, another democratic candidate, is for the league as written at Versailles, and for law enforcement as to prohibition.

In the republican senatorial race, Dwight F. Davis, former lieutenant colonel in the Thirty-fifth division, has announced he favors a liberal interpretation of the prohibition law, while Senator Selden P. Spencer voted for the Volstead enforcement act.

Nominees for congress in the 16 districts in the state also will be chosen, as well as candidates for virtually every state office.

To the Voters in Commissioner's District No. 2. (Including 3rd and 4th Wards.)

It has been impossible for me to see every voter personally and solicit their votes in my campaign for re-election as your commissioner from the 2nd district. I am taking this method of asking those I cannot see personally, to remember me at the polls.

I have been your commissioner for one year. I have served you the best I know how, and I believe I have served you well. I am acquainted with the duties of the office and can be more efficient during a second term.

The office of county commissioner is hard to fill without unjust criticism from a few disgruntled persons. I have done what I thought was right in every case and I believe public opinion is with me. I want to warn my friends against eleventh hour campaign dope that may be spread when it is too late to properly answer it.

Thanking you for your votes, I am,
Very sincerely yours,
J. I. LAUGHLIN.

PROGRAM FOR NOTIFYING COX ON SATURDAY

By the Associated Press
DAYTON, Ohio, August 2.—Announcement of the formal program for next Saturday, notifying Governor Cox of his nomination for president by the democrats, was expected today, following a conference today between the nominee and the Dayton arrangements committee.

A parade of visiting delegations is the principal event scheduled to precede the notification address by Senator Joseph P. Robinson of Arkansas, chairman of the San Francisco convention, and the acceptance speech of Governor Cox. Governor Cox set aside today to confer with the notification planning committee and with an extra stenographic force to clear his desk of the state and personal affairs, preparatory to the notification ceremonies and completion of the democratic campaign plan.

This week many leaders are expected here for conferences with the presidential nominee.

BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SEEKS TO GET NEWS OF MEET

By the Associated Press
LONDON, August 2.—Up to early this afternoon nothing had arrived in official British or Polish headquarters in London, to indicate definitely whether Russia and Polish emissaries had actually come in contact.

In the three game series at Gunter, Texas, Thursday, Friday and Saturday the teams were evidently matched as a result of the games will show.

The first game played resulted in a final score of 1 to 0 in favor of Gunter and went 16 innings. Kile for Gunter, knocked the ball over the left field for a home run. Batteries for Ada, Stagner and Sigler, for Gunter, Kile and Phillips. Time of 1:53.

The second resulted in favor of the Indians, it being 6 to 0. The features of this game was the home runs by Morgan and Robinson of Ada. Batteries: for Ada, Morgan and Stagner, for Gunter, Black and Kile. Time of game 1:14.

The third game was a tie. Thirteen innings were played and neither team secured a score. Umpire called the game on account of darkness. Both teams are credited with playing fast baseball and the game of Saturday was considered one of the best seen in North Texas for some time.

Manager Jim Coleman states that the people of Celina, where the local club made their headquarters in Texas, were very nice to the team and showed them every courtesy possible. These favors will be long remembered and the chances to return them some day will probably present itself.

The Ada team played Hugo on the local diamond yesterday afternoon, resulting in a score of six to five in favor of the local team. Twelve innings were required to complete the game on account of a tie. Details in tomorrow's News.

Millinery Department In A. P. Brown Co. Has Been Sold Out

Miss D. Sheffield has recently bought out the millinery department of the A. P. Brown Co. She was in the city Saturday and left for St. Louis and Chicago to buy a complete line of up-to-date fall millinery.

Miss Sheffield has had experience in the large wholesale millinery houses in Chicago, St. Louis and New York. She has long past the apprentice stage in the millinery art. She is located in this section of the country partly for her health. Like many other new comers to our city, she was particularly attracted by the city's pure spring water.

The business will remain in the balcony of the A. P. Brown Company's store at 113 West Main. The millinery department is to have new fixtures and wall cases, however, that will give it a classy appearance. This department will not be connected with the business of the store.

The new millinery department will be ready to open about August 15th with a full showing of fall goods. The new owner comes well recommended and will no doubt deservedly win her share of the city's millinery trade.

COAL MINERS ARE RETURNING TO WORK

JOHN FLOWERS IN RACE FOR COUNTY CLERK

John Flowers.

John Flowers, who is in the present race for the democratic nomination for county clerk, is what might be called an Oklahoma product. He has lived nearly all his life in the old Chickasaw Nation and in Oklahoma. In spite of serious handicaps he acquired an education and has taught school for several years in this section of the state. He is a graduate of the Ransomerian Business college at Kansas City, and is an expert book-keeper.

Mr. Flowers is a fine example of what a young man may do in overcoming obstacles. He has prepared himself for a man's work in life and is well equipped for the duties of the office to which he aspires. He will appreciate the support of the voters in the present contest and if elected, will make good in office as he has always done elsewhere.

OKLAHOMA COTTON CROP IN JULY REMAINS NORMAL

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—An increase of more than a million bales in the prospective production of cotton over the indicated yield a month ago was forecast today by the department of agriculture. A total of 12,519,340,000 bales was forecast from the condition of June 25th.

The condition of the cotton crop of Oklahoma on July 25th was 85 per cent normal.

By the Associated Press
OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 2.—The condition of cotton in Oklahoma placed at 85 per cent of normal by the United States bureau of crop estimates in co-operation with the state board of agriculture, is a marked improvement over the report of June 25th, according to a report given out today by H. H. Schutz, federal agricultural statistician. The report declared that in no year since statehood has the crops showed such a pronounced advance.

All districts show a better condition figure; many reports being considerably above normal. The west, central and eastern districts have an identical condition, indicating that this year there is a belt extending through the central portion of the state from east to west that has been exceptionally favored.

Final Word of John Rawls —TO THE— Voters of Pontotoc County

The campaign is just about to come to a close. I am making this as my closing appeal to the voters of Pontotoc County for their support on Tuesday. It would be a reflection upon the citizenship of Pontotoc County to think that we have only one man in the county who is capable of filling the Sheriff's office. I do not believe that the people believe this to be true, though there seems to be some who so believe. If I am the choice of the people of the county at the polls on Tuesday, I pledge them that I shall not be the Sheriff of any clique combination or coterie of individuals, either in Ada, or in any other portion of the county, but shall without fear or favor serve the entire citizenship of the county regardless of their standing financially or socially. If I am successful in this race, I hereby go upon record in writing that should I be elected, I shall not by running for the FOURTH TERM monopolize the office, or try to dictate my successor, thus preventing other good citizens of an opportunity of serving the people in this capacity.

Thanking my friends both women and men for the interest taken in my race, and for their favorable consideration at the polls on next Tuesday, I am if elected,

Yours to serve,
JOHN RAWLS
